

Conference: e-Estonia 2007
Information society for everybody
 16th of January 2007, Viru Conference Center

9. 30	Registration, morning coffee
10.00	Opening the conference, welcoming
10. 10 – 11.30	Session I: Estonian e-Government in a developing phase
Moderator Rainer Kattel, Tallinn University of Technology, Professor	Edgar Savisaar, Minister of Economic Affairs and Communications - Development of the Information Society by the Public Authorities Jerry Mechling, Leadership for a Networked World Program Faculty Director, Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University – Estonian e-Government on international comparison Ivar Tallo, Director of the e-Governance Academy - Vision of e-Estonia for the year 2020
11.30 – 12.00	Coffee break
12.00 – 13.30	Session II: e-Services for everybody
Moderator Ants Sild , BCS, Chairman of the Board	Margus Püüa, Head of the State Information Systems Department e-Services in Estonia Mart Parve, Look@World Foundation– Action plan for the project „Computer protection for the year 2009” – Developing Estonia as better information society country Christine Leitner, Center for European Public Administration (CEPA) Danube-University, Krems (Austria) - e-Government in EU
13.30 –14.15	Lunch
14.15 – 15.30	Working groups
Moderator Hannes Astok, Programme Director of the e-Governance Academy	Information Society in Local Governments
Moderator Tarmu Tammerk, Journalist, France Presse	Citizens and enterprisers in the information society
15.30 – 16.00	Coffee Break
16. 00 – 17.00	Session III – Conclusions
Moderator Ivar Tallo	Hannes Astok from the e-Governance Academy, representative from Tallinn City and from the Local Government          Conclusion of the ideas to develop information society on the local level Tarmu Tammerk – Conclusion how to include civil society and business sector on decision making process for information society. Conclusion, made by the rapporteur Henrik Roonemaa (journalist)
17.00	Closing remarks